

RIDGE TO RIVER

Searsmont, ME

The Ridge to River Trail is a pleasant and meandering trail that divides itself between a white pine-dominated forest alongside the Georges River and the fantastic views atop Appleton Ridge. The trail is linked to the Gibson Preserve to the north and the Canal Path to the south.

The upper portion of the trail follows a section of the Saint George River. Along the way you'll notice the remnants of an old bridge crossing the river. The lower portion of the trail offers fantastic views of the river valley atop Appleton Ridge that are well worth the extra effort.

DIRECTIONS TO THE TRAILHEADS

The east trailhead is located adjacent to Robbins Lumber. From the intersection of Routes 131 and 173 in Searsmont village, travel south on Route 131 for 1.7 miles to Ghent Road on the left. Travel 0.25 miles on Ghent Road to the parking area on the right, just after crossing the bridge. The trailhead is on the opposite side of the river.

The west trailhead is on a discontinued road in Searsmont. From the center of Searsmont (Fraternity Village Store), head west on Route 173 (Woodmans Mill Road). Travel 2 miles to Ripley Corner Road on the left (see map). Please park on the shoulder of Ripley Corner Road; visitors must walk in via the old woods road over an iron bridge. The old road forks and the trail entrance is inbetween the fork with blue blazes marking the entrance.

GEORGES HIGHLAND PATH

A Unique System of Trails

The 50+ miles of the Georges Highland Path are built primarily on privately owned land thanks to handshake agreements. Please respect the rights of these generous landowners during your visit. Without their participation, this trail system would not exist.

The Georges Highland Path has been described as a “hikers hiking path” and the maintenance standard aligns with a desire to provide a back country experience within minutes of the busy towns of midcoast Maine. Expect tree roots, rocks to scramble over, wildlife, and a wonderful time!

Thanks to our sponsors and contributions from people like you, we are able to keep these trails available to all who seek the inspiration and solace of the natural world.

The Canal Path Trail is sponsored by the following companies. Please patronize and thank these trail sponsors!
