

Georges River Land Trust welcomes the Sacred Art Tour

For the first time, Tibetan Buddhist monks of the Drepung Gomang Monastery in India, are visiting Maine!

March 27-31, 2018

Langlais Sculpture Preserve
576 River Road, Cushing

During their 10-month national tour, eight Tibetan refuge Buddhist monks will be sharing ancient Tibetan traditions and culture and global compassion.

The intricate creation of sand mandala over six days will not only be a public exhibition of extraordinary art, it will reveal profound lessons of impermanence, interdependence, peace and collaboration.

Schedule of events

ALL EVENTS ARE OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

March 27	noon to 5 p.m.	Welcome to monks and start of mandala, Langlais Sculpture Preserve
	4 to 6 p.m.	Rock Painting Workshop
March 28	10 a.m. to 4 p.m.	Creation of sand mandala, Langlais Sculpture Preserve
	6 to 8 p.m.	Fire Puja, Wheeler Bay Wildlife Sanctuary, St. George
March 29	10 a.m. to 4 p.m.	Creation of sand mandala, Langlais Sculpture Preserve
	5:30 to 7 p.m.	Traditional Tibetan Momo dinner, First Universalist Church, Rockland
March 30	10 a.m. to 4 p.m.	Creation of sand mandala, Langlais Sculpture Preserve
	6 to 8 p.m.	Traditional Tibetan Snow Lion Performance, Dancing Elephant, Rockland
March 31	12-1 p.m.	Dissolution of mandala, Langlais Sculpture Preserve
	1:30 p.m.	Blessing of the St. George River, Harjula Lane, Cushing
	4 to 5 p.m.	Meditation class and Dharma talk, Dancing Elephant, Rockland

DONATIONS ARE ENCOURAGED TO BENEFIT GEORGES RIVER LAND TRUST, AND DREPUNG GOMANG MONASTERY, SERVING 2000 TIBETAN REFUGEE MONKS IN INDIA.
SALES OF EXQUISITE TIBETAN MERCHANDISE AVAILABLE AT ALL EVENTS. SPONSORS WELCOME.

CONTACT: cynthia@grlt.org